

FACULTY FELLOWS & EMERGING SCHOLAR- PROFESSIONAL PROGRAM

The Center for Diversity and Inclusion (CDI) is accepting proposals for the Faculty Fellows & Emerging Scholar-Professional (FFESP) Program to be piloted during the 2016-2017 academic year. FFESP is an interdisciplinary fellowship program in which faculty and graduate/professional students collaborate and develop diversity-focused research, programs, and ongoing engagement experiences.

Recipients receive:

- $5000 Faculty Stipends
- $2000 Graduate or Professional Student Stipends
- Funding for Undergraduate Research Interns
- $15,000 programming budget to advance campus and community dialogue about your research topic

A selection team comprised of faculty, CDI staff, and students will review proposal materials and select the FFESP Team for next academic year.

Submit proposals to:
diversityandinclusion@wustl.edu

Proposal Requirements:

- Submit 4-5 page proposal to include a synopsis of your research; proposed campus-wide program(s) (i.e., symposia, speakers' series, seminars, etc.); and a detailed programmatic budget
- Must demonstrate alignment with the Center for Diversity and Inclusion's mission and strategic directions and the impact on student learning
- Must be an interdisciplinary partnership of 2 faculty members (from different academic units) and 1 graduate or professional student (from any unit or either of the faculty fellow's unit)
- Must show commitment to sharing scholarship with the student and larger university community

Proposals due March 31st. Decisions announced May 1st