

The 5th Annual WashU
Language
Teaching Fair

August 21, 2023 Schedule of Events

WELCOME (2:15-2:35 PM)

Welcome from the CTL
January 110

Eric Fournier, The Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL)
Meg Gregory, College Writing Program (CWP); Mimi Kim, EALC; Iva Youkilis, RLL

SESSION 1 (2:45-3:30PM)

Session 1A: Using Emerging Technologies in Language Teaching
Eads 115

TalkAbroad

Motomi Kajitani, East Asian Languages and Cultures

AR in Language Learning

Iva Youkilis, Romance Languages and Literatures

Using Emerging Technologies: Padlet, Google Earth, Hypothesis, PollEverywhere and More

Marisa Barragán-Peugnet, Romances Languages and Literatures

Session 1B: Integrating Cultural Narratives into the Language Classroom
Eads 116

Normalizing Enslavement in the Ancient World?: Case Studies and Controversies in the Presentation of Slavery in Latin and Greek Language Textbooks

Rebecca Sears, Classics

In Other Words: The Art of Paraphrasing

Nancy Berg, Jewish, Islamic, and Middle Eastern Studies

Using Comics for Teaching Hebrew: A Philosophical/Pedagogical Discussion with (Colorful) Examples

Eyal Tamir, Jewish, Islamic, and Middle Eastern Studies

SESSION 2 (3:40-4:45PM)

Session 2A: Engaging in Inclusive Practices

Eads 115

Student-Assessed Participation as an Inclusive Teaching Practice

Katherine Kerschen, Germanic Languages and Literatures

Teaching Controversial Newspaper Articles in an Intermediate Korean Language Class: How it Supports DEI"

Taewoong Kim, East Asian Languages and Cultures

Using the Climate Fresk NGO: Engaging a Diversity of Learners in a Class on French Ecology

Lionel Cuillé, Romance Languages and Literatures

Session 2B: Strengthening Students' Communication Skills

Eads 116

Paused Transcription: A Bottom-Up Approach for Language Teaching

Christopher Meierotto, English Language Programs, Engineering Communication Center, and Intensive Legal English Program in the Law School

Finding the Right Words

Laurel Taylor, East Asian Languages and Cultures

Toward More Authentic Discussion Skills for Advanced Learners

Karen Schwelle, Engineering Communication Center

HAPPY HOUR (4:50-5:30PM)

Eads Hall, Second Floor

Join us for a brief happy hour to celebrate the start of the semester!